

Ben Yomen, composer (1901 – 1970)

Born Ben Goichberg, in Uman, Ukraine, Ben Yomen set the poems of many of the most well-known Yiddish poets of the early and middle years of the twentieth century to music. He worked in New York City Yiddish schools and summer camps. Yomen died in Miami Beach, FL.